Experience indicates that the time involved in graduate study can put significant financial and emotional strain on a student's marriage and family.

How do you view your spouse's plans and your involvement in them? What is your commitment to what may involve years of study for your spouse? How will this commitment affect your own career goals? Feel free to express yourself in whatever way you wish. We will not use your statement as the only factor in your spouse's acceptance or non-acceptance. Please use a typewritten/printed format on separate paper.

STUDENT PLEDGE

Introduction: Cross-National Graduate School of Leadership recognizes the importance of maintaining certain lifestyle standards as Christian leaders, especially "because of the present distress" (1 Cor. 7:26) of this 21st century cultural and societal milieu. We believe in the biblical principles and practices of limiting one's own liberty as an example to and for the spiritual well-being of others (Rom. 14 & 15 and 1 Cor. 8, cf. James 3:1). The School requests that its students follow the established standards while they are affiliated with CGSL.

In light of the expressed principles listed above, in making this application I pledge that, if admitted to Cross-National Graduate School of Leadership, I will work together with my fellow students and with the faculty and staff in a spirit of humility, cooperation and love, complying with the rules and regulations of the Graduate School—even if my personal convictions or preferences are different. I further pledge to live my life in such a way as to not bring reproach upon the Name of Christ, His Church, or the Graduate School.

Also, I understand that if I am admitted to Cross-National Graduate School of Leadership, I may be dismissed from the School if I have misrepresented myself on this application form or if I do not fulfill the pledge I hereby make.

Lastly, I hereby certify that the above statements in this application form are true and accurate.
